

The Final Countdown – One World Economy

Part 1

“Once there was this young married lady who was leaving a convenience store with her espresso in hand and she noticed a most unusual funeral procession.

And what she saw was a black hearse that was followed by a second black hearse about 50 feet behind the first one, and behind the second hearse there was a solitary old woman walking a dog on a leash. And then behind her, a short distance back, were about 200 women walking in single file.

And so the young woman couldn't stand it anymore and so she goes up to the old lady walking the dog and respectfully asked her, “Excuse me, Mam, I'm sorry for your loss, and this maybe this is a bad time to disturb you, but I've never seen a funeral like this before. Whose funeral is it?”

And the old lady responded, “It's my husband's.”

And the young woman said, “Oh. And what happened to him?”

And the old woman responded, “He yelled at me and my dog attacked and killed him.”

And so the young lady she was a little startled at this, but she inquired further and asked again, “Okay, but who's in the second hearse there?”

And the old woman responded, “That's my mother-in-law. She was trying to help my husband when the dog turned on her and killed her too.”

And in a very touching magical moment that only two women can share, the young woman whispered the to old lady, “Can I borrow the dog?”

And the old lady responded, “Get in line.”

Now, come on ladies! That's messed up! I mean, last week you laugh at a pig with a wooden leg, and now this week its, “Get in line!” But seriously folks, believe it or not, as messed up as that joke is, did you know those 200 ladies and apparently a few ladies in this congregation aren't the only ones "getting in line" for a funeral! Yeah, that's right! Believe it or not folks, the Bible says one the whole planet is going to be getting in line for a funeral during the 7-year Tribulation. And this one's not going to be caused by a mangy ol' dog but from the Hand of Almighty God! He's going to pour out His wrath on this wicked and rebellious planet and most of the population is going to their own funeral! You don't want to "get in line" for that one! And that all of course begins at the rapture of the Church! And folks, the reason why it's going to be such a horrible time is because for those who refuse to accept Jesus Christ as their Personal Lord and Savior they'll be catapulted into the 7-year Tribulation and its not a joke! It really is an outpouring of God's wrath on a wicked & rebellious planet. In fact Jesus said in Matthew 24 it's going to be a "time of greater horror than anything the world has ever seen or will ever see again. And that "unless that time of calamity is shortened, the entire human race will be destroyed." But praise God, God's not only a God of wrath, He's a God of love as well. And because He loves you and I, He's given us many warning signs to show us when the Tribulation was near and when Jesus Christ's 2nd Coming was rapidly approaching.

Therefore, in order to keep you and I here at Sunrise from experiencing the ultimate bad day of being left behind, even worse than getting in line for that funeral, we're going to continue in our series The Final Countdown. And so far we've already seen how the #10 sign on The Final Countdown was The Jewish People. The #9 sign was Modern Technology. The #8 sign was Worldwide Upheaval. The #7 sign was The Rise of Falsehood. The #6 sign was The Rise of Wickedness. The #5 sign was The Rise of Apostasy. The #4 sign was The Rise of A One World Religion. And the last six times we saw how the #3 sign was The Rise of A One World Government. And what we saw there was that God lovingly foretold you and I that when we see all the world's governments on the planet coming together as one, which is happening right now today all over the world. And we saw that with the Chronological proof, the Administration proof, the Quotation proof, the Tactical proof, the Control proof, and the last 3 times with the Monitor proof where we saw how the Antichrist is not only going to control the whole planet and everything we do, he's going to monitor the whole thing! Every single aspect of our lives is going to be monitored with a Big Brother Type surveillance system to detect any resisters and ensure that you don't get away! And we saw that with our Information System, our Communication System, our Transportation where unfortunately you're not going to be able to run, or hide, or flee, or do anything like Jesus said you need to do at that time, because they're not only monitoring you with your computer, and TV, and weapons, anywhere on the planet, but they've got drones watching you anywhere on the planet, ready to take you out! Even miniature ones! How many of you guys went out and bought a fly swatter? Yeah, it's going to be a bloodbath like the Bible says! You don't want to be there. The only way out is through Jesus Christ.

System, our Camera System, and last time with our Location System

Accept Him now before it's too late!

But that's not all. The #2 sign on The Final Countdown that God has given to us to lovingly wake us up is none other than A One World Economy. That's right folks, the Bible is clear. One day the whole planet is not only going to be under the authority of the Antichrist with this One World Government, but it's also going to be under his Economy as well. He's not only going to monitor you, but he's going to control all the money! Now he's really got you! But don't take my word for it. Let's listen to God's.

Revelation 13:11-17 "Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon. He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men. Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth.

He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.”

Now folks, according to our text, the Bible says there really is coming a day when all the inhabitants of the earth will not only be under the authority of the Antichrist, but even his what? His economy or monetary system, right? You can't buy or sell, you can't do anything with money, without his permission. And so here's the point. The Bible clearly says, one day, believe it or not, the whole world will be unified into A One World Economy that is actually saturnally inspired. But again, as always, the question is, “Could that really happen?” Could the whole world really be deceived into creating A One World Economy for the Antichrist to at one point hijack and take over for his purposes? And is there any evidence that this is really going to take place just like the Bible said? Uh, yeah! In fact, it's happening now!

And the 1st proof that we know really are headed for a One World Economy is the Chronological Proof. Folks, what most people don't realize is that this One World Economy of the Antichrist is not only going to be put into place, because the Bible said it would. But what people don't realize is that it's been in the planning stages for a long time. And they're just about ready to pull it off! Check it out for yourself.

- 1913: The Federal Reserve created (It is neither federal nor a reserve and is owned by banks. It was planned at a secret meeting in 1910 on Jekyll Island, Georgia by a group of bankers and politicians. - 2003: Proposal to keep children safe with a microchip

Roger Ebert: Right now my mind is telling my body to talk and it's supplying my mouth with words that I'm giving to you. And the mind could also learn to say to the chip-go to a certain webpage and download some information and supply it to the inside of my eyeballs.

Bill O'Reilly: You believe that you can actually be able to tell your mind through a chip to provide you with information that you can then speak. So on this program it would be great for me to put a little chip in there and if I didn't know something I could say to the chip-I would have to say it outloud or just think it?

Ebert: Either way

O'Reilly: I could just think it-give me an answer

Ebert: Right now, we're loaded up with bionic stuff already. I'm wearing glasses. I have fillings in my teeth. This is a wristwatch. I'm wearing clothing which allows me to adjust to the climate as I go outside. So obviously it's only a matter of time until convergence allows us to match the number one tool of the next century and that would be the computer chip. Clothes are tools, glasses are tools

O'Reilly: Sure, but all these are external but the computer chip would be in you and that's what frightens me.

Ebert: Well, it could be in you or it could be where ever you wanted it to be. And it would allow you to make telephone calls without having a cell phone. It would allow you to surf the web without having a monitor.

O'Reilly: Well show me how...so if I had a chip imbedded in my head I can make a telephone call by just start talking? "Call Mom"?

Ebert: Um, yeah.

O'Reilly: And mom- I would be able to talk to her?

Ebert: You would just say "Hello Mom"

O'Reilly: But I wouldn't have a phone or anything.

Ebert: No. And so you would have to have some body language so people would know what you were doing. Let's say that you're standing at the American Airlines terminal

O'Reilly: Yeah.

Ebert: And you're calling the Advantage desk and saying I've missed my flight, do you have any seats at 10 o'clock? Ok, if you're standing there saying that, someone's going to look at you like you're one of these crazies.

O'Reilly: Not if everyone had the chip they'd all know what was going on.

Ebert: Well, then you would do this <puts hand to side of head in a phone symbol> This means, I'm not just talking to myself. I'm talking on the phone O'Reilly: This sounds so..

Ebert: If you're reading the web on the inside of your eyeballs.

O'Reilly: Yeah.

Ebert: It would look rude to people. It would look like I'm staring straight through you. Well I'm not staring straight through you, I'm looking at the FOX NEWS webpage, right. So how do I want people to know that? I would just go like this <make an L gesture with hand>

O'Reilly: This sounds so unbelievable.

Ebert: If I'm downloading information <makes hand gesture next to head, like a martian antennae>

O'Reilly: <laughing> But it's true. It could happen.

Ebert: Things are converging so quickly and computers are already such an amazing tool

O'Reilly: But we checked it out a little further than you're article and the scientists tell us that it is absolutely true and absolutely possible for a human being to have a chip imbedded in their system and to have many, many things appear in their mind upon command. So you would say I need to know the name of the 18th President. BING!

Ebert: Not only that, I meet you and call up your credit report while we're talking. And eventually, the time will come when a child is implanted with a little chip back here and we'll learn to control the chip in the same way you learn to control your bodily functions and your voice and your movement.

Good Morning America

Under My Skin-A New Kind of Love Connection

Charles Gibson: This next story we have for you is kind of wild. You might call it microchip commitment. A young man by the name of Emil Gastra and Jennifer Tomlin-they are dating-have total access to each others' homes, cars, and computers. And they have that access by way of matching electronic microchips that are implanted under their skin. They're joining us this morning to make you understand. Try to make me understand all of it. They're joining us from Vancouver, Canada and I appreciate you're being with us. Before we get to this, what this chip actually looks like, Emil, I want you to give me some demonstration. We have some videotape here of what you can do with this. For instance, I understand you can unlock your car door and open your car door without ever putting a key in it.

Emil: Yeah, actually I can just walk up to the car and present my hand to the sensor which is in the windshield of the car. It reads the chip ID and says, 'okay this is Emil' and unlocks the car and disarms the alarm.

Gibson: And you can do the same thing with your front door.

Emil: Uh, yeah I then come right in and there's a little sensor on the door and place my hand up next to it. It reads my ID and unlocks the deadbolt.

Gibson: And you can also, I understand you folks are sitting in front of a computer you can also uh turn on your computer this way?

Emil: Uh yeah, I can log in as it indicates me.

Gibson: So you meet this guy, Jennifer, and you start dating and he tells you what he's done and he suggests that maybe you do the same thing.

Jennifer: Uh he wrote his book and after about a year, seeing all the cool projects, I decided to do it myself.

Gibson: And what are the future applications of this. I presume it will be able to do more things than just open your car door, your front door or log onto your computer.

Emil: Yeah, uh, there's the common theme is access control. But there are some people that are matching profiles to it so you get in your front door but then your home automation system knows that it's you and sets lighting and music and that kind of preference.

Gibson:: And it's inserted under your skin with a needle.

Emil: Uh, yeah but left hand was done with a scalpel actually and it was placed under by a cosmetic surgeon. Right hand was done with the same needle injector that used on pets actually.

Gibson: So this is something for the future I can say, you know, how does a couple commit to one another, well ‘I will put you on my front door in my microchip.’ I suppose there will be a lot of future applications. Maybe we’ll all have one of these under our skin in time.

Blitzer: Some are calling them radical ideas by the Catholic Church to fix the global economic crisis. Our Lisa Sylvester reports.

Sylvester: The division between the haves and have not's is long central to the Catholic Church. Now the Vatican is picking up on the momentum, and speaking out on what it calls the idolatry of the market. For the first time the Vatican has outlined what it sees as a moral fix for the problem of poverty. A proposal to create a new financial authority including a Global Central Bank and a new tax on global financial transactions.

Rev. Thomas Reese: Globalization has made us all in the same boat and we're gonna either sink together or we're gonna prosper. But we're only gonna do that if we work together as a wealth community to deal with these issues.

So we're almost there folks, having true global trade abilities, as well as linking all our Economies together. But here's the point. Correct me if I'm wrong, but when you take a look at the timeline, I'd say somebody's not only pretty serious about forming this One World Economy, but by the looks of it, they're just about ready to pull the whole thing off, how about you? And that's exactly what the Bible said would happen, when you are living in the Last Days!

But you might be out there thinking, “Hey man, come on Pastor Billy, there’s no way America’s going to go along with this! This is crazy! This is just some wacky conspiracy theory stuff! There’s no way our leaders here in America would ever undermine our Country’s monetary system and go along with a One World Economy! That’s insane! It not only goes against the sovereignty of our nation, but it’ll totally destroy us! Well folks, once again, I hate to burst your bubble, but that brings us to the 2nd proof that we know really are headed for a One World Economy is what I call the Fear & Manipulation Proof. Believe it or not folks, they’re using the same tactic we saw in a One World Government to get the job done for a One World Economy! It’s called fear and manipulation. Again, put yourself in the Antichrist’s shoes. If you’re going to deceive the whole world into creating not only A One World Government but now with a One World Economy...then you first have to get everybody on the planet into a total state of fear, right? Why? Because as we saw before, once you get people into a state of fear you can manipulate them. The Antichrist is not dumb! He knows what he’s doing! He knows historically people are more apt to surrender their freedoms in a time of fear than in a time of peace. So, if you create a crisis, even an economic one, globally, you can manage the global outcome. You can manipulate people into doing whatever you want them to do, whether they realize it or not!

And folks, this is precisely what's been happening to our country, if you've been paying attention, for the last several years economically! We not only have a "health-care crisis," a "child care crisis," a "food crisis," a "water crisis," a "terrorist crisis," an "environmental crisis" but we also have that dreaded never-ending ongoing "economic crisis," right? Everything is a horrible crisis including the Economy just waiting to explode! AHHHH!

And because of these "economic crisis" that are seemingly out of control, all over the world, we have been manipulated, whether we realize it or not, into a constant state of fear and we're starting to cry out for what they want us to cry out for. Some global entity, some global savior, some Global Universal Monetary System that'll fix all these global economic problems so we can get our prosperity back! We've been duped! And you might think, "Come on, does this lying deceitful fear tactic really work on people, to get them to surrender their freedoms and go along with a One World Economy?" Uh, you bet it does folks! In fact, these guys admit we have been deliberately pushed over the edge, on purpose, to get us to this point of no return, to create a One World Economy.

Ok Roger, you're special subject tonite is the economies of the European community. You're time starts now. Best of luck.

Roger: Ok

How much does Greece owe, Roger?

Roger: Uh, 367 Billion dollars.

Correct. Now who do they owe it to?

Roger: Mostly to the other European economies.

Correct. How much does Ireland owe?

Roger: 865 Billion.

Correct. And who do they owe it to?

Roger: Other European economies, mostly.

Correct. How much does Spain and Italy owe?

Roger: One trillion dollars each.

Correct. Who to?

Roger: Mainly France, Britain and Germany.

Correct: And how are Germany, France and Britain going, Roger?

Roger: Well they're struggling a bit, aren't they.

Correct. Why?

Roger: Because they've lent all these vast amounts of money to other European economies that can't possibly pay them back.

Correct. So what are they going to do?

Roger: They're going to have to bail them out.

Correct. Where are they getting the money to do that Roger?

Roger: <chuckles> That's a good question. I don't know the answer to that one!

How much does Portugal owe?

Roger: Now hang on a minute. What was the answer to that earlier question.

Just keep answering the questions Roger. Where is Portugal going to get the money it owes to Germany, if Germany can't get back the money it lent to Italy.

Roger: Just a minute. What was the answer to the previous question. The question was-how can broke economies lend money to other broke economies that haven't got any money because they can't pay back the money the broke economy lent to the other broke economy and shouldn't have lent it to them in the first place because the broke economy can't pay it back!

You're wasting very valuable time, Roger. How much does Spain owe Italy?

Roger: 41 Billion dollars, but where are they going to get it?

Correct. What does Italy owe to Spain?

Roger: 27 Billion. But they haven't got it, they're broke.

Correct. How can they pay each other if neither of them has any money.

Roger: They're gonna get a bail out, aren't they?

Correct. And where's the money coming from for bailout?

Roger: THAT'S WHAT I'M ASKING YOU!"

Now folks, that video would be funny, if it weren't so true! But here's the point. Sure doesn't sound like we're going to come out of this one, does it? And folks, I'm telling you, that's precisely what they want! This thing has been created! Why? Because again, they know us. People are more apt to surrender their freedoms in times of fear than in time of peace.

Therefore, if you create a crisis, even an economic one, you can manage the economy of the whole planet. In other words, you get to create your One World Economy with fear and manipulation! It's working like a charm! And for those of you who don't believe me, it's already led to a Universal Bank. Again, put yourself into the Antichrist's shoes. He's not dumb! He know if you're going to get the whole world to go along with a One World Economy, then you first have to have some sort of Global Banking System to oversee the whole operation, right? Well gee whiz folks, what do you think the United Nations and countries around the world have been working on for decades and have put in place over this last Economic Crisis? Right now folks, there is already in place the plans for absolute total economic control of the whole world. Right now, there's already a Universal Bank as we saw in the timeline called the World Bank which is the world's leading lender of money to the nations around the planet.

But wait a minute. If you're going to have a universal bank then you need Universal Lending Institution to oversee the dispersion of loans, right? Well folks, what do you think is the function of the International Monetary Fund which oversees the whole world's financial system and even fixes the exchange rates.

But wait a minute. If you're going to have a universal lending institution then you need a Universal Money Exchanger to funnel all this money to all the different countries, right? Well, guess what folks? Right now there's a Universal Electronic Banking System called SWIFT, which automatically makes sure that all the different money transactions in the world match all the different currencies.

But wait a minute. If you're going to have a universal money exchanger then you need to have a Universal Strong Arm to punish those who don't obey this World Banking System, right? Well gee folks, that's why, right now, there's the World Trade Organization which not only sets the trading rules for the world, but they punish all countries who do not obey with billion dollar fines.

And so correct me if I'm wrong, but it sure sounds to me like if you put all this together and I'd say somebody's not only pretty serious about forming a One World Economy, but it sure looks like they're just about ready to pull it off, how about you? And they're using fear and manipulation, to get us to go along with it!

But that's not all. The 3rd proof that we know really are headed for a One World Economy is the Quotation Proof. Folks, lest you think I'm making this whole thing up and I downloaded this from "wackyonspiracyguy.org" you tell me if this is not their plans! If you don't think the world leaders are really using this latest Economic Crisis to create a One World Economy, then don't take my word for it, listen to theirs! Ever since that crash, world leaders immediately began using that event as an excuse to say, "We've go to come together to form a Global Economy to prevent this from ever happening again!"

Prime Minister Gordon Brown: The international financial crisis has given world leaders a unique opportunity to create a truly global society. Britain, the United States and Europe are key to forging a New World Order. Uniquely in this global age, it is now in our power to come together so that 2008 is remembered not just for the failure of a financial crash that engulfed the world. We can together seize this moment of change in our world to create a truly global society."

President George W. Bush: "It is essential that we work together because we are in this crisis together. Together we will work to modernize and strengthen our nations' financial systems so we can help ensure this crisis doesn't happen again."

European Commission President Manuel Barroso: "We need a new global financial order."

German Chancellor Angela Merkel: "It was time to rethink the world's financial system and prevent any repetition of the current crisis."

Morgan Stanley Chief Executive John Mack: "We need a new global body to oversee the financial crisis, warning that it is like nothing he's ever seen before."

Timothy Geithner president of the Federal Reserve: “We need a new global monetary authority, a de-facto global financial dictatorship, operating across borders and forcing nations and corporations to register and adhere to strict monitoring and regulations.”

China: “They are calling for a new global currency controlled by the International Monetary Fund, stepping up pressure to global leaders, for changes to the financial system.”

Russia: “Is calling for a new international currency system and wants to overhaul the entire global financial order and even introduce a new supra-national currency to avoid future global financial crisis.” (SEE VIDEO)

United Nations: “They are proposing the biggest overhaul of the world’s monetary system since WWII by calling for a new global currency.”

Banks: “The Institute of International Finance, a group that represents 420 of the world’s largest banks and finance houses, has issued yet another call for a one-world global currency. They are encouraging a return to a commitment to utilize International Monetary Fund special drawing rights to create an international one-world currency.

Single Global Currency Association: “Are calling for the world to embrace a Single Global Currency to be managed by a Global Central Bank within a Global Monetary Union. If the European Monetary Union can successfully provide stable currency to countries, why not a Global Monetary Union for all countries? We shall achieve this goal through education and persuasion.”

Or as Revelation 13 puts it “We’re going to force, order, & make you do it!” But folks, here’s the point. I’m not making this up! They admit it! They’re using this latest Global Crisis to create a One World Economy and a One World Currency. In fact, they’re not only calling for a One World Economy and a One World Currency, but they’re even calling for a Global

Tax on all the countries on the whole planet! Just when you thought you paid enough, you ain't seen nothing yet!

UN wants Global Tax

Neil Cavuto: Have ya heard about this doozy, because before Iran apparently blows up the world, the United Nations wants to hit up the world with a tax, actually lots of taxes. To cover everything from fighting climate change to fighting poverty. There's talk of a billionaires tax, a global carbon emissions tax, even plans for a world bank transaction tax. I have no idea what that ones for. But the fact that the White House apparently isn't saying BOO about it-any of it. Makes some wonder whether we, in the United States should be worried about it. Former U.K. parliament member, John Brown, says we should. He's with me now. This is weird but can the U.N. actually do this?

John Brown: Well only if it's supported by the members and of course it's a most open, surprisingly open and aggressive bid for world government. But of course it fits exactly with Obama's strategy which he openly declares his redistribution of wealth from the successful to the less successful from within the United States. But this goes on a whole long step further. This is redistribution of American and European wealth to the Third World. I mean it's nasty enough to pay taxes for a huge government that you think interferes with your life. But to pay and throw it around the whole world?

Cavuto: But, then there will be no place to escape

Brown: Absolutely! And that's what they want. World Government. No place to escape.

As well as an Economy that will force you into it. And folks, believe it or not, you may not even hear the news of this taking place before it's too late. One man states:

“The jury is still out on which way the United States will go on the issue of global economic control by the UN. Most Americans will never know the issue is on the table until after the decisions are made. The media is not likely to address the issue, nor is it likely to be a topic of congressional debate. These events are taking place in other parts of the world, with decisions being made by officials who are not elected by anyone. No elected official in the United States has any authority to alter or veto these decisions. The world is moving swiftly toward global governance.”

And a Global Economy. Gee, where have I heard that before? Oh yeah, that’s right! That’s what the Bible said would happen when you are living in the Last Days! And lest there be any misunderstanding that this One World Economy is truly generated by the Antichrist and his satanic buddies, let’s remind ourselves where it’s all heading and why the Bible calls it satanic. It’s not just about forming a One World Economy, but a Cashless Economic System, that leads to total economic slavery!

Revelation 13:16-17 “He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.”

And so folks, the Bible clearly tells us that the Antichrist’s economic system is not only going to be over the whole world, but in order to be a part of that system, you have to have some sort of a Mark into your right hand or forehead, to buy or sell, right? But hey, good thing we don’t see any signs of people taking a Mark into their bodies to make payments for anything...they...buy...or...sell...right? Yeah, right folks! It’s already here! For the first time in the history of mankind, we not only have the technology to pull off this Mark of the Beast or Antichrist system, but we even have people who are already doing it! This is how close we are! Check it out!

How are these night clubbers in Europe making payments? How do they buy and sell? Let's take a look!

Baja Beach Club

At the Baja Beach Club in Rotterdam, Holland. This may look like a regular party but it's no normal club. The Baja has an elite group of special VIP's who are different from other clients. They need no identification and no cash to buy drinks or food. To enter the club, all they have to do is offer up an arm to a scanner. And tonight, 21 year old Ryon Schoutin, is joining the "in" crowd. He's getting an electronic chip implanted in his arm. It's called Radio Frequency Identification. An RFID chip is a small device that transmits a radio signal that's read by a scanner. In 2003, the Attorney General of Mexico and some of his staff, received RFID implants inside their bodies to allow them access to sensitive areas.

Each tiny chip has a number. A scanner connected to a database can instantly reveal who the person is and much more. Technically, there's no limit to the information the database can hold.

The chip itself is a little larger than a grain of rice. It will remain inside Ryon's body for the rest of his life. The chip is implanted just millimeters below the skin. If it goes in too close to the muscle, the muscle could be damaged and Ryon will feel the chip when he moves. If all goes well, he won't even know it's there. The procedure is over in seconds and now it's time to party. Although others have to pay cash at the entrance, when Ryon arrives, his name and number instantly identify him as a member of the club. He makes his way to the VIP deck and uses his implant to buy a drink. The Baja is a glimpse of a not so distant future. Already, some people have chips with critical health information. Something that soon everyone will have chip that will identify them and allow a new form of surveillance."

And total economic slavery! You won't be able to buy or sell without it! Is that Revelation 13 before our very eyes or what? So much for a wacky conspiracy theory! Hello! Folks, this is all happening right now, it's not make believe, it's real, and we better get motivated. It's exactly what the Bible said would happen, when you are living in the Last Days! It just happens to be happening now! And so here's the point. Once again, what more does God have to do? This is not a game! This is real! God doesn't want us going into the 7-year Tribulation and He certainly doesn't want us to go into HELL! And so that's why, out of love, He's given us these signs of a One World Economy to show us that the Tribulation is near, Christ's 2nd Coming is rapidly approaching. And that's why Jesus Himself said:

Luke 21:28 "When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

People, like it or not, we are headed for The Final Countdown. And so the point is this. If you're a Christian here today it's time to get busy! We've got to lay aside our differences and start getting busy working together saving souls by the Spirit of God! Amen? Let's be God's team not the enemy's team!

But if you're here today and you're not a Christian, then I beg you, please, heed the signs...heed the warnings...give your life to Jesus today...because the last place you ever want to be is in the Antichrist's Kingdom. THAT CHIP you saw on that video is the TIP OF THE ICEBERG! It's going to get WAY WORSE and you need to take the way out now! The ONLY way out of this mess is through Jesus Christ. Call upon

His Name and ask Him to forgive you of your sins, and escape the Wrath to come before it's too late. Let's pray.

To find the way to God, to understand the truth of God's Word, and to received the gift of eternal life, begin by repentance and faith through a prayer like this:

“Dear God, I understand that I have broken Your Law and sinned against You. Please forgive my sins. Thank You that Jesus suffered on the cross in my place. I now place my trust in Him as My Savior and Lord. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.”
