

The Final Countdown – Mark of the Beast

Part 5

“A while back, scientists at NASA built a gun specifically to launch 4-pound dead chickens at the windshields of airliners, military jets and the space shuttle, all traveling at maximum velocity, to simulate the frequent incidents of collisions with airborne fowl to test the strength of the windshields.

Well, British engineers heard about the gun and were eager to test it on their windshields of their new high-speed trains. So arrangements were made, and a replica of the gun was sent to the British engineers.

And when the gun was fired, the British engineers stood shocked as the chicken hurled out of the barrel, crashed into the shatterproof shield, smashed it to smithereens, blasted through the control console, snapped the engineer’s back-rest in two, and embedded itself in the back wall of the cabin, like an arrow shot from a bow.

So the horrified Brits actually sent NASA the disastrous results of their experiment, along with the designs of their windshield and begged the U.S. scientists for suggestions.

I’m not kidding you, NASA responded with a one-line memo that read, ‘Defrost the chicken.’”

How many times do I have to say it...frozen...thawed...however... chicken is evil! Hello! But seriously folks, how many of you guys would say those British Engineers paid a high price for not knowing a very important piece of information on their experiment there, you know what I’m saying? Uh huh, and that’s not even counting what chicken juice can do to things! It’s like acid, it destroys everything it touches! But seriously folks, believe it or not, did you know those scientists are not alone. Did you know the whole planet's making the same unfortunate mistake with God's important instructions! Yeah, and all they gotta do is repent and get saved before He shoots out His wrath on this wicked and rebellious planet and they'll be okay. But no! They skip over that vital piece of information and act like everything's going to be just fine...when it's not! They are running the risk of being thrust into the Antichrist's kingdom, and you don't want to be there. Hello! And that all begins of at the rapture of the Church! And folks, the reason why it's going to be such a horrible time is because for those who refuse to accept Jesus Christ as their Personal Lord and Savior they'll be catapulted into the 7-year Tribulation and its not a joke! Again, it's an outpouring of God's wrath on a wicked & rebellious planet! In fact Jesus said in Matthew 24 it's going to be a "time of greater horror than anything the world has ever seen or will ever see again. And that "unless that time of calamity is shortened, the entire human race will be destroyed." But praise God, God's not only a God of wrath, He's a God of love as well. And because He loves you and I, He's given us many warning signs to show us when the Tribulation was near and when Jesus Christ's 2nd Coming was rapidly approaching.

Therefore, in order to keep you and I here at Sunrise from experiencing the ultimate bad day of being left behind, even worse than trying to fire a chicken period we're going to continue in our series The Final Countdown. And so far we've seen how the Prophet Jon has shared with us how the #10 sign on The Final Countdown was The Jewish People. The #9 sign was Modern Technology. The #8 sign was Worldwide Upheaval. The #7 sign was The Rise of Falsehood. The #6 sign was The Rise of Wickedness. The #5 sign was The Rise of Apostasy. The #4 sign was The Rise of A One World Religion. The #3 sign was The Rise of A One World Government. The #2 sign was The Rise of A One World Economy. And the last 4 times we saw how the #1 sign was The Mark of the Beast. And what we saw there was that God lovingly foretold you and I that when we see all the nations of the world promoting some sort of Marking System to be put into people's bodies that will link them to a global matrix system that will control all the buying and selling on the planet, uh, it's a sign you're living in the last Days! And we saw it's happening now with the Conditioning proof, and last time with the Willingness proof, where we saw that people are actually convinced for the first time in mankind's history, to be willing to receive the Mark of the Beast technology right now! Young and old alike, it doesn't matter, everybody wants this thing! That's how close we are folks! This is not a game. This is real! The Mark of the Beast technology is here and people are lining up to get it!

But that's still not all. The 3rd way that we know really are headed for this Mark of the Beast system is the Mandating Proof. You see, you might be out there thinking, "Well hey, there's no way I'm going to line up and receive a microchip implant! That's crazy! That's nuts! You can't make me do that!" Oh yeah? You might want to read your Bible. That's precisely what the Antichrist is going to do to the whole planet! He's going to make you do it, and if you don't do it you will die! But don't take my word for it.

Let's listen to God. Open your Bibles to Revelation 13:11-18.

Revelation 13:11-18 "Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon. He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men.

Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.

He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name. This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number. His number is 666."

Now folks, according to our text, the Bible clearly says that the False Prophet in the Last Days is not only going to dupe the whole world into worshipping the Antichrist, or the beast, but he's what? He's going to make them do it, right? He orders them! In fact, so much so, if you don't worship the antichrist, you're going to what? You're going to die! You're going to be killed, right? But he still goes on. He then says if you don't take this mark of the Antichrist, then what's going to happen to you? You're going to be forced into doing it, whether you want to or not, right? And so here's the point. The Bible clearly says this is all happening on a global scale which means in order for this to happen, for the Antichrist and the False Prophet to make and force and order people to do what they want them to do, including taking the Mark of the Beast, you have to at some point, move from everything being an option or a choice under the guise of convenience of course, to at some point making this an order, right? At some point you have to mandate it, right? Of course! It says it right there! And I don't know about you, but I am so glad that we see no signs of the happening anytime soon. Yeah, right! It's already here! Folks, for the first time in mankind's history, we are moving towards the full mandating of the Mark of the Beast system whether we want it or not! Don't believe me?

The 1st proof we've already started to have this Mark of the Beast System mandated on us is with a Universal ID. You see, once again, put yourself in the Antichrist's shoes. I mean, here you are with the ultimate goal of tracking and tagging every single person on the whole planet, and controlling what they “buy and sell,” right? And as we just read, at some point, you’re going to have to force them into doing it, right? So the question is, “How I the world are you going to get people used to the idea of being forced into receiving some sort of microchip technology into their bodies?” Well hey! Wouldn’t it make sense to implement a kind of Phase One first, where you mandate an external ID cards that has a chip in it that people carry on the outside of them? And then once people get used to having that mandated, then maybe Phase Two would kick into gear, where people would be mandated to receive a Universal ID Chip on the inside of them. I mean, we all know those cards can be lost or stolen so this be much more secure and safe and convenient, don’t you think? And you might be thinking that’s crazy, but folks, I’m telling you, Phase One is already well under way. In fact, a Universal mandatory ID Chip Card is hidden in the new Immigration Bill. Ron Paul exposed it. Can you say, “Let me see your papers!” Hitler eat your heart out! Check it out!

Scene from an older black and white film:

Official: May I see your papers?

Man: I don’t think I have them on me.

Official: In that case, I guess we’ll have to ask you to come along.

Man: WAIT! I think it’s possible (reaches inside in coat) YES! Here they are. (hands them to official) 2nd Official: These papers expired 3 weeks ago. You have to come along.

Man: (starts running)

Official: HALT! HALT! (both start in pursuit-then one of them pulls out a rifle and fires at the man)

Man: (hit by a bullet, falls to the ground)

Guiliano: (from 2008) Then we should develop a tamper proof ID card. And then as you got the tamper proof ID card- you'd be allowed to work, pay taxes, get online, become a citizen, follow the rules.

Sen Ron Pau: It's by far the worst National ID scheme the statisticians have come up with yet. They're still hiding their true intentions. But in the wake of recent events, the statisticians believe they have the perfect excuse to ratchet up their attacks on our remaining liberties. Right now the so-called "Gang of Eight" in the United States Senate including Senators John McCain, Lindsey Graham, and Chuck Schumer- are working with President Obama to sneak this massive National ID Card power grab into a new "immigration reform" law that's being used as a cover for all sorts of statist madness. I hardly know where to begin.

The 844-page so-called "Immigration Reform" monstrosity is a statistician's dream. Not only does this bill increase federal spending, it mandates every American carry a National ID card with their photo and creates a new federal database containing biometric information on every American, such as fingerprints and retinal scans. The card would be required for all U.S. workers regardless of place of birth, making it illegal for anyone to hold a job in the United States who doesn't obtain an ID card. All employers would be required to purchase an ID scanner to verify the ID cards by making sure the information on the card matches the information in the federal database. So every time any citizen applies for a job the government would know and you can bet it's only a matter of time until "ID scans" will be required to travel, attend public events or even make routine purchases, as well.

Or in other words, what you can “buy or sell.” This is happening right now folks! We’ve been totally duped! But you might be thinking, “Well hey, that can’t happen! We’ve got to stand up and fight this! We can’t go back to do what Hitler did! Let me see your papers! I mean, surely it’s against the law to mandate a Universal ID Card.” Well actually, as of 1986, with the passage of the Immigration Control Act, this now “gives the President the authority to implement whatever type of identification is necessary to control the population.” And if people don’t like it, that’s too bad because all he needs to do is wait for another national emergency or crisis, and by law the President can put it into action through FEMA to “restore order.” In fact, an Executive Order that was signed allows the President to “Empower the Postmaster General to register all men, women and children in the United States.” Hey! Go down to the Post Office and get your chip kids! And as crazy as this is, I’m telling you, we’ve already been warmed up to this. If you think about it, it’s not the first time we’ve been a mandated card in the U.S. How about that ol’ Social Security Card? First it was supposed to be just for tracking individual accounts for those who enrolled in the Social Security program and was not to be used for ID purposes...ever! But now try getting around in life without one, right? It’s need for almost everything, including “buying and selling” of certain items. And lest you think a government, even our own would ever require people to receive a universal identification mark, well again, we saw Hitler do it with the Jews, who many would say was a precursor to the Antichrist. And even more recently it's not just the U.S. but the whole world is preparing to do this. The European Union is preparing to give its citizens a universal identification so they can "freely move about from country to country." And Japan has "launched a compulsory ID system" called Juki Net that links all citizens to a nationwide computer system. And Germany is looking to do the same thing, as well as Mexico, and even Israel is doing it too! I'm telling you folks, it's going global just like the Bible said!

But you might be thinking, "Well hey, this is crazy, there's no way in the world people can pull this off for the whole planet. I mean there's just way too many people and it would cost way too much and take too much time. It's just not feasible!" Really? Well, you might want to tell that to India. They're doing it right now with their 1.2 billion people, and wait till you hear what they won't be able to do if they don't get it! Check this out!

Biometrics in India:

Reporter: Fingerprint and eye scans of every person in India are being gathered in the biggest biometric database in the world. Well the 1.2 billion people's data will be on the system, which will give access to the welfare state.

This is an enormous task. The fingerprints and eye-scans of every Indian in the country are being taken and collected in an online data base. When complete, everyone will have a unique identity number. It will enable them to access India's vast and unweildy welfare-state.

Nandan Nilekani: There are a large number of Indians who don't have any form of identity whatsoever. So this is a way to include them into the society and give them the benefits.

And get them ready for Stage Two and now everybody gets chip!

Feasible or not folks, looks to me like somebody's already doing it! In fact, in this program, it is envisioned to "facilitate everything from banking transactions to the purchase of goods and services." You know, buy and sell. Looks like the Antichrist's Stage One is working out great! In fact, that's not all. The United Nations has already outlined a scheme so that "every person in the world" would be "registered under a universal identification." And a "Global ID Card is being called for, and issued to each person on the planet to not only identify themselves, but give access to all governmental services, health care services, allows them to drive a car, get a job, get insurance, gain access to buildings, and of course, pay for things."<sup>22</sup> First get this Universal Chipped ID Card mandated on the outside of you across the whole planet, then how about mandate it for on the inside of you with a chip. Sounds like a great plan for the Antichrist, how about you?

But that's not all. The 2nd proof we've already started to have this Mark of the Beast System mandated on us is with a Universal Goal. You see folks, once again, put yourself in the Antichrist shoes. Some people, like us here at Sunrise, who after all this time, might have an inkling of Bible Prophecy, we can see clearly where this Universal ID card is leading to. It's leading towards Stage Two a Universal Microchip, right? So hey, if you're the Antichrist, what do you do with these people? They're going to let the cat out of the bag! What do you do? Well hey, doesn't it make sense to first warm them up the mandate of a Universal Microchip incrementally by working at one end of the spectrum, and then start moving towards your ultimate goal. Of course! And here's what you do. First get them used having something mandated to be put in their bodies first. You know, like with mandatory vaccinations like we're seeing across the country, and mandatory blood samples taken from DUI suspects, and mandatory DNA samples from people who get pulled over period, as we saw before. You are having something invasive put inside your bodies whether you like it or not! And then once people accept that, then move to your ultimate goal, another invasive thing inside your body, the microchip! Makes perfect sense, right? Of course! But again, start at the end of the spectrums first, so people don't catch on and get warned up to it. You know, start with those dangerous people first like criminals and prisoners who "deserve" to have their rights and taken away, and micro-chipped. They should be forced to get one, right? Well, they are!

KOMO 4 News/Tracking Trouble

The trouble with tracking sex offenders has put a controversial plan before state law-makers. Instead of GPS bracelets, convicts would be forced to have a device implanted.

Luke Duecy: The thinking is this. You can track someone on their phone. You can even track you own pet if you want to. So why not track sex-offenders using a tiny radio chip.

David Torrence, a level 3 sex-offender, ripped his criminal tracking device from his ankle and disappeared. Authorities have no idea where he was. But soon, that might change. Instead of ankle bracelets, like Torrence was wearing, sex-offenders might have something like this <RFID chip> implanted.

It will be a little more difficult to take off.

Yeah, I agree, it's stuck inside of you, now what are you going to do?

So let me get this straight, the bracelets on the outside of prisoners were the first step of eventually getting a chip on the inside of prisoners. Hmmm, where have I heard that before? But hey, that's just those prisoners, but who cares about those guys, right? They deserve to have this happen to them.

Not! Oh, but that's not all. Now move a little closer away from the end of the spectrum and then try it out on those people behind bars. But what about those people who don't know better? You know, those who have lost their memory with Alzheimer's? I mean, if we put a chip inside of them, we could track them like the prisoners and it'll keep them safe, it's for their own good! Well, guess what? We're doing that too! Check this out!

GMA:

Reporter: Ida became one of 4 1/2 million Americans diagnosed with Alzheimer's.

Ida's husband David Frank: Well she was being very forgetful. She would ask the time and repeat the question over and over again.

Reporter: Which is why Ida is one of the first patients at this Alzheimer's Center in Florida to be implanted with a microchip.

Scott Silverman (CEO VeriChip) When an Alzheimer patient presents an emergency room or is found wandering in a certain location, once their arm is scanned, it would immediately designate who they are-their identity and the fact that they are an Alzheimer patient.

Wow! See? I told you it was for their own good! But that's right!

Don't stop there! You're on a roll! Move a little closer now to your ultimate goal and how about mandating chipping for not only prisoners and Alzheimer's Patients, but hey, how about Policemen and Soldiers! I mean, hello, they're government property already anyway, right? I mean, if we just chip them too they'll be safe on the streets or the battlefield wherever they are! And believe it or not folks, that too is already happening! Check it out.

Reporter: Sgt. Bill Koretsky's implanted medical microchip may have saved his life. His story begins in the middle of a high-speed police chase in New Jersey.

Sgt. Bill Koretsky: The brakes on the police car overheated, the car wouldn't stop and I hit a telephone pole dead center at 40mph. The airbag did not deploy. I didn't have my seatbelt on and I hit the steering wheel.

Reporter: Paramedics rushed Koretsky to the Hackensack University Medical Center. Thanks to his implant, doctors immediately discovered Koretsky's diabetes.

Koretsky: I regained consciousness, full conscientiousness within an hour. But if I had not, I could have gone into a coma.

Reporter: If the VeriChip Corporation has it's way, Koretsky's story will become the norm.

CNN NEWS:

Melissa Long: Keeping track of troops in Iraq. The military is already. Using some type of GPS on some soldiers. But what more can be done? CNN's Brian Todd takes a look in this week's Tech-Effect.

Brian Todd: One option, placing a tracking micro-chip under a service members skin. Former Special Operations officers tell us they believe that's being developed. Current military officials won't comment on that.

Hmmm. So first it was the external GPS tracker, then it moved to the internal microchip. And they won't comment on it. I wonder why? Who wants to hear you're going to have a mandated microchip! But hey! Don't stop there! If it's good for your soldiers and policemen and Alzheimer's patients and prisoners to keep them safe, why not kids! I mean, they don't know any better and they get lost all the time! If we chip them they'll not only be safe from predators, but we can monitor them wherever they go! Won't it be great! Well, these people think so!

"On my first instinct, it sounds like science fiction. The microchip is safe in humans.

Reporter: Dr. Jonathan Musher, who works for the company that sells the chip, says it will save lives.

Dr Musher: The FDA stands firmly behind this.

Reporter: He admits that there have been no long term studies on people. But nonetheless, he's convinced it's safe. And there are some who see no problem using the chip for more than a medical ID. Parents are putting these chips in kids in Mexico where there is a higher risk of kidnapping. The scanners are put up at airports and bus stations, so if a chipped child is there, police know.

Dr Musher: There's been over 10 million pets in 15 years that have had this microchip without any problems."

Well hey, there you have it! If it's good for Fido, it's good for Frankie, and Johnny, and little Susie and everybody! Won't it be great to have your mandated microchip! And now that we've allowed it to go on this far, why the next thing you know, if you don't want to take one willingly, they'll just make it a necessity, that is, if you want to keep your job! Don't believe me? It's already happening! Watch this!

Sean Darks: There's my chip right there.

Reporter: You can actually see it. It's the size of about a grain of rice, and it feels like it too. But what that tiny chip can and can't do, has become the source of much concern and confusion

Darks: I was in a grocery store, and a couple of ladies said, "Hey you're the guy with the chip in you're arm, aren't you? Ride across the scanner to see if you can get us a discount on groceries."

Reporter: Sean Darks is the CEO of Citywatcher.com, a small company in Cincinnati. It's the first U.S. business to use chip implants in its employees. Chip implants have been common in pets for several years. Giving the owner peace of mind that their lost animal could be identified. And for retail giant Wal-Mart, the chips are used as Smart-barcodes to keep track of thousands of product. But for use in people, well, privacy advocates think we shouldn't open that door. Like it or not, we're in that Brave New World and it might not be long before YOUR boss is literally getting under your skin.

Now wait a second. You mean to tell me that even if I'm not willing to get a microchip implant, I might still have to just to keep my job? Uh huh. It's almost like we're getting boxed in, isn't it? Oh but that's still not all. They've covered all the bases. You see, if you're not willing to get an implant, and even if choose to lose your job over an implant, it might soon become mandatory from Congress. Don't believe me? This is what we saw before with the chilling quote from then Senator Joseph Biden talking to then candidate Chief Justice John Roberts. Let's take a look at that again!

Joe Biden/Roberts Hearing:

Joe Biden: And we'll be faced with equally consequential decisions in the 21st Century. Can a microscopic tag in a person's body to track his every movement. There's actual discussion about that. You will rule on that, marks my words, before your tenure is over.

Dr. Katherine Albrecht: I think the real concern that most people have is that at some point the government would say, "Line up and get your chip."<sup>23</sup>

But hey, that'll never happen..."You will rule on that mark my words." Folks, I don't know about you, but if the exact same two guys here who have now mandated for us to have to have healthcare are here now talking about people being forced to be implanted with a microscopic tags to track their every move, whether they want to or not, uh, my guess is they're probably going to be forcing people to be implanted with microscopic tags to track their every move, how about you? And that lady is right! For the first time in man's history, we are seeing the Government say, "Line up and get your chip!" Gee, where have I heard that before!

Folks, this is how close we are! This is not a game and this is not 50 years down the road, it's happening now! Therefore, the point as always it this! What more does God have to do to get our attention? How much more does He have to share with us before we wake up and recognize the days we live in? He doesn't want us to go into the 7-year Tribulation and He certainly doesn't want us to go into HELL! And so that's why, out of love, He's given us all these signs of the Mark of the Beast to show us that the Tribulation is near, Christ's 2nd Coming is rapidly approaching. And that's why Jesus Himself said:

Luke 21:28 "When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

People, like it, lump it, leave it or not, we are headed for The Final Countdown. It's not bad news, it's Good News! Jesus is coming back! But if you're here today and you're not a Christian, then I beg you, please, heed the signs...heed the warnings...give your life to Jesus now. We are headed for the worst train wreck in the history of mankind, and God has given us His Son Jesus to rescue us from that nightmare. This is what the Bible means when He says this:

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His One and Only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

In other words, God let His own Son take the “hit” for your crimes against God. He let Jesus be crushed for your sins so that you could make it across death’s door safely! He’s the bridge between you and God! And all you gotta do is reach out and receive it as a gift and be saved before it’s too late? Won’t you do that today? Please! There’s no time to waste!

To find the way to God, to understand the truth of God’s Word, and to received the gift of eternal life, begin by repentance and faith through a prayer like this:

“Dear God, I understand that I have broken Your Law and sinned against You. Please forgive my sins. Thank You that Jesus suffered on the cross in my place. I now place my trust in Him as My Savior and Lord. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”
