Video: Back to the Basics “Thank you for this video, I needed this!”

Video: Discipleship 101 “God Bless you Billy Crone!! I have never heard a preacher that moves the spirit like you do!! The message you give has a lot of spiritual power behind it and it totally makes the spirit move!! Thank You!!”

Video: The Book of Revelation “I feel lucky to find this teaching series. Thanks!”

Video: The Final Countdown “thank you so much for posting these vid's Bill, you bring the gospel to life...” (Andrew)

Video: The Final Countdown “My family and I watched this video and it contains helpful warnings. The churches are losing their power, because they are taking away God's Word.”

Video: The Final Countdown “Anointed is a mega understatement!!! Father continue to bless this man and his congregation and I pray that you would flow these videos out to the unsaved everywhere and pour out your spirit on everyone who has been deceived! Praise Jesus!!!!!!!” (Ryan)

Video: The Final Countdown “Hey Pastor Billy Crone, I'm Alan, I started watching your videos on youtube awhile ago and got hooked on watching them, I like how you put things in a perspective that I hadn't quite put together! I recently got baptized here in Lincoln Nebraska on Feb 24th and as a baby christian I am struggling with putting things together, and I visited your site and donated what I could for the DVD's there.” (Alan from Nebraska)

Video: Various Videos “I love your videos and preaching!! Thank You for all the work you do!! You are a Blessing on all of us that get to hear your message....you make sense and that's important cause many times over the years I've been in church and had no idea what they meant. Thank You for being so clear and detailed and putting things together in a way it makes sense to the rest of us and makes us excited to read our bibles once again!! GOD BLESS you and your family and work!!” (Asami)

Video: The Final Countdown “there is a mini mart / gas station 1 block from my house that is very busy every time i walk there people are selling pirated DVDs right outside the door I would love to hand out your the final countdown videos to a lost and dying world. I have shared you videos with friends and family via your website. me and my family have watched and been blessed by all your videos.” (Roy from California)

Video: Various Videos “My husband and I reside in NJ with two small children. We want to thank you for your thorough sermons preaching the true gospel, which is rare to find. We share your DVDs with friends and family hoping they will be saved. Your DVDs have had a huge impact on them. In this part of the region most people are non practicing Catholic and atheist.” (Dawn from New Jersey)

Video: The Final Countdown “My wife and daughter and I just finished watching #20, The Final Countdown. Very much needed information. I pray that many will be watching and heeding your warnings. Thank you!” (Robert)

Video: The Final Countdown “Hi Pastor Crone! I have a couple questions about your Final Countdown Ultimate Version that I have been watching on You Tube. I just finished episode 23. (I've invested a lot of time watching your messages.) There are so many great ideas and teachings in these videos and I really love them and the way they make me think about things. Some things I've thought about in the back of my mind, but have never really taken the time to bring them to the forefront and think about completely, and other things are just really eye opening and educational! I've been a Christian for a long time and I wish all of my friends would take the time to watch your messages too, but I know that is not likely to happen, due to time constraints or just plain apathy. Do you have a study guide to go along with these videos? There are some points I would like to look back on and review, but after watching so many videos, I don't even remember which one they are in. Also, I was thinking that perhaps I could get a few people together in my home to watch some of these videos and a study guide would really help. I'm not opposed to doing my own, but I figured I would ask if you have some already before I go and reinvent the wheel. Lastly, do you have an estimated date when this series will be finished or when additional videos will be posted? We're only to the Rise of Apostasy so you have many more to go. Thanks so much for what you're doing and staying true to the Bible in your teachings.” (Christy from Ohio)

Video: Various Videos “Hi Pastor Billy. I was wondering if I could purchase all the Final Countdown Videos "Ultimate Version" and also the whole series on "A Judged Creation" all the videos on the pre-flood and all the scientific info you have. Please message me back with a price and instructions on where to mail the money. Thank you so much I have learned so much! God is really using you to reach so many! God bless you!” (Jenny from Ohio)

Video: Various Videos “Hi! from Ohio. Had to share this story with you. Our family has been watching you're video's. My fiance has heard this kind of preaching before, he was born an raised in the bible belt of the south. I, however and my 6 children have not. We started attending church again, sadly it's all about love etc. when we watch you're sermon's YOU make us feel uncomfortable. Which is a GOOD THING. So i was convinced our church was tickling our ears right? Last night we went to our church for night services. We have a stand in pastor , no head pastor. So I thought to myself wouldnt it be AWESOME if billy would come to NE OHIO. Then I thought who would do that?!!! Amazing thing happened Billy last night, we have been praying to find a preacher like yourself to make us "feel uncomfortable" which is YOU'RE job I have found. The pastor gave a sermon last night like no other we have seen, HE EVEN USED THE WORD HELL...oh my BILLY I about fell OUT OF MY CHAIR! He not only SAID HELL HE SCREAMED IT!!! Then he proceeded to hit on every point my fiance an I are struggling with.! Not only that...the NEW PASTOR IS FROM GA!! SOUTHERN BAPTIST CHURCH...GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME BILLY! I spoke with the stand in pastor about YOU, about all we have watched an learned thru you. We spoke to the pastor about Apostasy in the church now an no one will talk about hell,, I SAID sir when you said hell i bout fell OUT of my seat. Billy when he screamed HELL HE looked right at us! Had to share this story with you, I am buying ALL of the CD'S you have copying then an making appointments with local churches , too meet with the Pastor an WATCH the video with him. I refuse just to hand them to a secretary etc.. I have been searching for years to find my spiritual gift, i found it. I have always been in sales ..let GOD use my big mouth an hardheadedness to sit down with these Pastor's an explain WHY people need SCIENCE along with the word today. I explained to the pastor last night, Sir some folks come in here an don't know IF there is a GOD...they are searching an if you have THESE video's it is BACKED up by science! I cannot tell you how much you THRU GOD have changed a WHOLE lotta people here in NE OHIO! THANK YOU BILLY FOR BEING A GOOD SERVANT FOR OUR LORD!! We will keep you informed on how our church is doing with a new pastor. I was wondering in the future of course, if you would be interested in visiting our church as a guest speaker? Don't know if you do that kind of thing or not. Sorry so long you know us women with out 2500 words LOL.. Thanks again man!" (Janet aka a new creature in Christ!!! from Ohio)

(Jamie from UK)

Video: Various Videos "Dear Pastor Billy, I just had to write and say thank you. In fact I cannot say thank you enough. God had been pulling on my heart for a while but I was at a loss of what to do or where to go. I had become so bitter by what you have creatively deemed, "Churchianity" that I would not go near a church and haven't for over 4 or 5 years now. Every church I had been to was so afraid of change. Either pride or fear kept them from doing what I believed to be right. For example, I was passionate about marriages and any classes I proposed were shunned. For the most part, something as simple as prayer, that simple thing that I had held from the time of childhood, when I could just go for a walk and spend time talking with God, was reduced to, "let's bow our heads" It became a chore. It became a ceremony. And the more I looked, the more I found anything I was passionate about was shunned from the current way of doing things. For a while now I have been feeling a pull to work both on my art but also on a fantasy novel. I didn't feel like it was something that had any worth other than my personal entertainment. But little by little, something continued to tug on me and I would do I little more digging. Soon it started having purpose. And then about and month ago, I prayed expectantly and asked HIM to help me with this novel. By the next day, my mind was flooded with possibilities. I started to do some basic research and was finding unsatisfying results from the "scientific" sources that are readily available online. Then I stumbled across "A fearful creation." Pastor Billy. I have listened to no less than one of your Sermons a day. In fact I watched the whole "Fearful" series in a day. I was so incredibly Giddy my husband was sure I was on a bipolar high and I had over does on energy shots. I was so revved up I sat him down and made him watch it and then I grabbed my kids and made them watch it. So I continued to watch and listen to you and then went out and tried to find a church in my area that taught as you teach. How amazing. I found Pastor Fernadez had come to my college 15 years ago. He had been invited by my teacher when I raised objections prior to the Anthropology course. How wonderful that he runs the Institute of Biblical Defense. And because of your work and the Holy Spirit, this next Sunday will be my first day back to Church in about 5 years. It will be the first time I have been excited to go to Church in almost 30 years. God Bless you. God Bless your Friend who talked to you that Easter Morning. Your Sister in Christ.” (Roz)

Video: Various Videos “Dear Pastor Billy, I heard you several months back on Dr. Stan's Radio show talking about the Cohen Levitical line. You said that the Cohen families can now do a DNA blood test to see if they are from the Levitical line. Do you know what laboratory they are using? If so, would you email me the information? Also, I would like to order your new Countdown series. How much is the new series? My family & myself are going through your Revelation series right now. We are learning so much. Thank-you for all that you do. Sincerely, In Him.” (Sally)

Video: Various Videos “Hi Pastor Crone. First of all, I want to thank you for your service to the Lord and His church. In watching your sermons online, I can see that you are dedicated to seeking the truth through His word and making it known to all who will listen. My sister, mother and I have been discussing the return of Christ for many years now. We have felt an unsettling in our hearts for the past decade, and through the discernment God has given us, we could see through the worldly deception that has been increasing at an alarming rate. It was my sister that found your series online, and we have been thoroughly enjoying the journey through The Bible with you as you reveal the signs given to us through the prophets, apostles and our Lord Jesus. When YouTube began cutting some of the videos short because of copyright issues pertaining to some of the included clips, we knew that the enemy was at work to silence the truth. That is when I started watching them on your site instead. The reason I'm writing to you and your staff is to find out when the rest of the series will be available. I have watched the sermons for the first 6 signs, and am very anxious to dive into the last four with you and your congregation. We live in Atlanta, so we will not be able to attend your church anytime soon (smile). I was hoping you could tell me when you plan to continue the series or have the remaining videos available for view or order. Thank you again for all that you do! God Bless.” (Stacy from Georgia)

Video: Various Videos “Dear Pastor Billy, my name is Heather and I've been wanting to email u for quite some time but time was always an issue (I have a long testimony to give) but this morning I woke up and the urge to email you was so strong that I decided today was the day. I was a troubled youth from about the age of 10. I became attention starved once my little brother was born (I have 3 siblings and was the center of attention until my youngest brother was born) and that was when my downward spiral began. I started smoking cigarettes and Pot at the age of 12, drinking by 14, having unprotected sex by 15, and by the time I was 16 I had dropped out of school for the first time and began partying full time. At 17 I became involved in my church youth group (I went to a Catholic Church from birth until the age of 19) and for awhile there I thought my life was going to turn around. But I was always told never to read my bible, that it was too 'complicated' for the average person and that was why we had a pope and a priest to explain it to us. i was told that Noah's ark was a local flood, that the creation story in genesis happened over a course of billions of years and not days, and due to all the rules i slowly started to lose interest in the church and my downward spiral intensified. Why follow a church when the 'book' we lived by wasn't even accurate? I started stealing to support my drug habit (I had moved onto LSD, mushrooms, crack, cocaine) and at 19 my parents kicked me out of their house because when I stole a pair of earrings from my mom that my dad had bought her for an anniversary gift, it was the final straw. I was completely and utterly lost. I moved in with my boyfriend, who was 4 years older than me and fresh out of jail. He was in jail for 4.5 years for armed robbery and back in those days I chased after the bad boys. I lost all contact with my family, and only saw them or spoke to them at family functions. I didn't think it was possible but I actually spiraled further into despair. I became a drug dealer for the Hell's Angels motorcycle gang and the next 2 years passed by in a drug induced blur. At 21 I got pregnant and wanted to change my life around so I moved out of the city into a small community 5 minutes from my parents house. My dad gave my boyfriend a job working for his excavating company and I truly thought my life was going to get better. But I thought I could do it on my own without Gods help and by the time my son was 9 months old I was back into the drugs and partying. I gave my parents custody of Isaac on the notion that I wanted to 'clean up', but really I wanted to party without having to worry about a baby. I only had him with me 2 days a week and the rest of the time he was with my parents. My boyfriend and I were doing just about every drug that was popular back then and with the help of Exctasy we started to engage in sexually immoral acts and I got to the point where I started to hate myself. The breaking point for me was when a friend of mine traded me his 2000$ TV for 22 rocks of crack. He then proceeded to smoke that entire pile that he bought from me, with me. By the time that binge was over I had been awake for 8 days with no contact with the outside world and I Even ignored the doorbell when my parents came to check up on me. When we ran out of drugs everyone left my house and I was alone with my boyfriend and for some reason I decided to call the pastor at the local Pentecostal church in my town. A friend of mine had tried to reach out to me and brought me to church a couple times with her, But I was mostly going to put on a front that I wanted to change when in reality i did not want to. But this time was different. I felt a tugging at my heart and didn't want to live like this anymore, so I called the pastor and explained my situation and within half an hour he and his wife showed up with homemade chili and 50$ in food vouchers and a bible. They prayed with me and helped me to realize that I was on a very destructive path and that God was calling me. After they left I called my mom and broke down crying and told her I wanted to put myself in rehab and clean up my life. Prior to this she had temporary custody of my son, but I was supposed to have him every weekend, and I asked her if she could keep him indefinitely until I cleaned up and had pulled my life together. She was overjoyed to hear I wanted to change (although I know deep down she was skeptical that I really would) and she said she would definitely let Isaac stay there as long as he needed to. So now came the hard part of telling my boyfriend I was leaving him and would never be coming back. I packed up the essential clothes I would need and then drove myself to a hospital in the nearest big city and started the process of getting into rehab. I was in rehab for 8 days and then thrown out into the world and I must admit I was terrified. I had a friend living near by who said I could sleep on her couch until I got my feet on the ground and I stayed there for a total of 5 months. During that time I had quit all drugs except pot, wasn't drinking, and had found a job. It was not nearly as hard adjusting as I thought it would be, but I still had my moments where 'the demons' (as my father always called it) would take over. I was big into tarot cards, astrology, ouija boards and speaking with the dead and I truly believe I opened myself up to a lot of demons. I had started this at the age of 14 and doctors had diagnosed me with borderline personality disorder and I battled with that for most of my life. My life was much better than it had been for the 5 years prior to this point, but I still had a long way to go. In October of that year (2005) a man I worked with asked me on a date, and I accepted. We hung out at his apartment and watched movies and he tried to be a gentleman but I had brought a 6 pack of beer with me and it wasn't long before I got drunk and seduced him. We had been friends for about a month at that point and he knew what kind of life I had come from and he asked me to move in with him. He was a recovering alcoholic and had not drunk in 2 years and figured he could offer me a good environment to live in. I accepted, and we started officially dating on November 23/2005. We had a lot of ups and downs but in general our relationship was pretty good. He had a bit of a drug problem though so I got heavy into smoking pot again and I started drinking a lot but then I got pregnant for the second time. My son was 3 at that time and had lived mostly full time with my parents for 1.5 years. At first I did not want to take him out of my parents home because I knew they could offer a better home for him and I knew he was happy there, but by the time I got pregnant I was fighting with my parents to take him back. I had legal custody the entire time and my parents were only temporary guardians, but my parents fought me the entire time and did not want me to bring him home. My boyfriend asked my Dad if he could have his permission to marry me and my dad was very happy to say yes, but he took it upon himself to have a heart to heart with me and tell me that since I was starting a new life with Kevin and a new baby on the way that maybe I should let Isaac 'go', count my losses, and focus my attention on my new family. They were more than willing to legally adopt Isaac as they had grown to think of him as their own child by that time. I was not ready to do that, but for awhile I stopped fighting with them to take my son back. About 7 months into my pregnancy things got bad between Kevin and I. His mother had always hated me although she had never met me and she lived in Texas and then later moved to Vancouver BC, and Kevin was very close to his mom. She had convinced him that her woman's intuition was telling her that the baby was not his, that I had been cheating on him, and in general I was bad news. He took what she said to heart, and although we were still living together we had broken up. He had a terrible anger, and had a fit at work and got fired from his job, and spent all his time sitting at home smoking pot and playing video games. I was working 50 hrs a week to pay the bills and keep food on the table and our lives were an absolute mess. His mother had sent him 600$ to drive out to Vancouver so he could go live with her, but he said he wanted to at least wait until the baby was born and then he would go. I went into labour right on time and for the second time I had to have an emergency c-section because the baby was under distress. I remember hearing the franticness in my doctors voice and other doctors were called in because they were afraid the baby and I would not make it. I remember very clearly the look on Kevin's face and I truly thought that he had changed his mind, realized he loved me and was going to stay with me no matter what. Moments later our son Malakai was born and he was Kevin's exact clone, right down to the birth mark on his leg. Kevin fell in love instantly and we were both so happy that

Malakai pulled through and I thought we would be one big happy family. I was wrong. A couple days later Kevin told me he still wanted to go to Vancouver, but that he would be taking my son with him as well. That did not go over well. I was not letting my son go anywhere without me. Maybe that's the reason he decided to stay, to this day we still don't talk about it, but Kevin ended up staying with me. We tried to start fresh. After much fighting with my parents, when Malakai was 3 months old, Isaac officially moved in with us and we had our whole family together. We moved back out to the small town I lived in when Isaac was born, and we started our life together as a family. We had more downs than ups, and when our son was only a year old we finally got married. I cried the entire night before our wedding convinced I was making a terrible mistake. We fought for years. From 2005-2009 it was a constant battle. I decided to leave him and while he was looking for a new place to live we found out I was pregnant. I wanted to have an abortion. I prayed and prayed to a God I wasn't even sure existed and begged him to show me a sign about whether or not I should keep the baby or have an abortion. Literally hours later I heard a knock at my door and there was a man who worked for world vision there and he said something I would never forget. He said 'There is a child who desperately needs u and u have the opportunity to give him an amazing life. Without your care and support he may never live the kind of life he deserves.' my heart stopped. It was like God was telling me I NEEDED to keep this baby and he HAD to live. I decided to sponsor that child, and I phoned Kevin and told him I was keeping our baby and I wanted to start over with him. Again. The pregnancy started off well, and Kevin had a job where he worked out of town for 10 days and then was only home for 4 days and he would head out again. But even though we were apart so much our life was going so well! We were doing amazing as a couple and our kids were very happy little boys and were so excited to have a new brother or sister. But then one day while I was cooking supper I felt cramps coming on and before I knew it my water had broke. I was only 20 weeks pregnant and I knew this was bad. I called my parents and asked them to meet me at the hospital and they got a hold of Kevin and told him to come home. The doctors weren't telling me much, but I could tell by the look in their eyes that our baby would not make it. They sent me home with my parents and told me we just had to wait it out. It took Kevin 12 hours to get home and when he finally got there we both laid down with our hands on my belly feeling our little baby wiggle around and we cried and cried. We eventually fell asleep and when we woke up 3 hrs later we knew the baby was gone. He wasn't moving anymore and Kevin couldn't hear anything when he put his ear on my stomach. We returned to the hospital where I eventually delivered a beautiful still born baby. We were surrounded with family and we all took turns admiring his perfectly formed fingers and toes and his cute little button nose. He did not yet have his outer layer of skin but he was still so beautiful. We were able to have him with us for the night and my parents called their priest to come pray with us. We decided to cremate our baby who we named William and then we discharged the next day. We went home and were sitting outside our house crying and I started praying asking God to show me a sign that our baby would be in heaven but that he would be watching over us. Just then a monarch butterfly flew over our heads doing a bunch of rounds over us and then it landed on my arm and stayed there for 2 minutes opening and closing its wings. I'd never had a butterfly land on me, and yet for that entire summer almost every time I went outside, within moments a monarch butterfly would fly around our heads and would land on me. Kevin is part native, and his culture believes that the soul of those who passed away but were not ready to leave this world would inhabit a butterfly, and we believed that butterfly was William. I kind of hit another downward spiral. I got back into reading my tarot cards and meditating, allowing spirits to enter me and it wasn't long before Kevin and I both started seeing William. We would see him as a spirit baby, or as a toddler running through our yard. We had visions of him constantly and although it would bring us peace at the time, our relationship took a change for the bad. We started blaming each other for losing the baby, and would even fight if the other person saw William when we didn't. I had multiple affairs, started doing drugs again and completely closed Kevin out. We were fighting constantly and I was determined to leave him for good this time. He had moved out and was living in his truck (he is a long haul truck driver) and I met a guy 12 years younger than me. The entire time Kevin never gave up on me, he would call me constantly and beg me to take him back but I was not going to change my mind. At first the fact that this other guy was so young was what drew me to him, but then as I got to know him I found out he was a devoted Christian and his love for God absolutely enthralled me. He kept telling me that God would forgive each and everyone of my sins and would make me a new person, and that I didn't need to follow any rules other than to trust in Jesus completely and that he would change me. I couldn't fathom that idea. He told me that the world was only 6000 years old and that evolution was a lie and at first I laughed at him and thought him naive, but then he showed me Kent Hovind's video 'lies in the textbook' and I was hooked. I still wasn't ready to be saved and the demons inside me were still hard at work and although I was captivated by the idea of this God, the evil in me was trying so hard not to let me go. I seduced this guy, and for 2 months he lived with me and I slowly watched him turn away from God, his family and his church. He stopped answering his phone and became obsessed with my world. He grew up with no tv, he was home school, he went to church 3 times a week, he was a very devoted Christian. And I had changed him. I prayed to God to show me what I was supposed to do. I knew this was not what he wanted when he 'brought' Paul to me, but I wasn't sure what I was supposed to do. He answered me the next day. Someone from Paul's church had phoned him, and I made him answer his phone, and the person from his church wanted him to have coffee with him. I encouraged him to go and told him he needed to get back to the life he had before he met me. I don't know why I told him that, prior to that day I wanted him all to myself, but I just knew he had to go for coffee with that guy. He was gone for 3 hours, and instead of walking into the house when he came back, he simply knocked on my door. I opened the door and he stood there and had a glow around his face, and his eyes were bright red from crying and he told me we were sinning, and we had to break up and never see each other again. I begged and begged him to stay, but he told me he was born again and asked me to forgive him for hurting me but that he would be leaving forever and would never talk to me again. I cried and cried when he left, I cried so hard I couldn't breathe. I wanted to die and I cursed God for bringing him to me and then snatching Him away so quickly. I did the only thing I could think of to do - I phoned Kevin and cried to him because I had no other friends to talk to. Kevin listened to me with an open heart and told me he forgave me and that he wanted us to try again. He told me it was our anniversary and that God chose this day for Paul to leave on purpose. I was shocked. I did not realize it was our anniversary but sure enough it was November 23, exactly 6 years since our first date. I told him I would think about it, thanked him for listening to me, and I hung up the phone. That night started a chain reaction for me that I will forever be grateful for. My whole life I was 'obsessed' with numerous things. A band, drugs, alcohol, the occult, sex, a man, etc. there was always something I was obsessed with that I could not get out of my mind and it always took over my life for the worse. But the next day I became 'obsessed' with God! I went straight to the store and bought a KJV bible, and I began reading. I started youtubing kent hovind videos and I couldn't stop watching them. I googled info on being born again and what it meant. I started going to the Pentecostal church in town with my kids and this hunger enveloped me that even if I wanted to I couldn't stop it. I knew I was not yet saved, and at the time I wasn't sure if it would happen but that didn't stop the hunger for God. That Christmas I accepted Kevin's offer to take me on a trip to Jasper AB and my parents took our kids for a week and we were off. We listened to different sermons from Kent and Eric hovind for the entire 16 hour drive, and on our trip we spent a lot of time hiking and marveling over Gods creation. For our entire lives we always believed life came as an accident and that God was just something people believed in to give their meaningless life purpose and for the first time ever we were looking at the world through different eyes. That trip brought us so close to each other, and it started the official journey of ours to get to know God. We started attending church regularly, and one day when I was googling dinosaurs YOUR video of a fearful creation showed up on my computer. I cannot thank you enough for posting all your videos and for your ministry! Our evenings no longer consist of watching sitcoms, but instead they consist of watching your videos about God! We are both born again now, and our lives have changed so drastically that I don't even recognize who I used to be. Gone is my sexual addiction, gone are our drug addictions, I never drink anymore, I don't even swear! The demons inside me are finally gone, i burnt my tarot cards, i no longer channel my spirit. God had completely ripped apart my life and given my life meaning and I have been born again for a little over a year now. My marriage is amazing, and I know God will never abandon me and will guide me for the rest of my life. Unfortunately I have lost friends and even some family due to our new beliefs, but we knew that would happen. God has started doing amazing work in us and constantly gives us opportunities to witness to other people and I am so happy to say that he has even given me the opportunity to work with a woman who is desperate to be saved. I pray constantly for guidance and for God to show me what he wants me to do and he shows me time and time again that he wants me to use my former life to show people that it doesn't matter where you've been in life, that his love is unending and more powerful than any addiction or demon out there. That he always wins and that you really can be born again when you trust in Jesus as our savior. Praise The Lord! I used to hate myself, and always thought myself unworthy to love or be loved, and God had shown me that yes, I am unworthy of heaven, but he loves me ANYWAY and sent Jesus to die in my place and for that reason I will spend eternity in heaven instead of Hell where I belong. A couple months ago I ordered the ultimate countdown videos, and Sundays after church we sit down as a family and watch them together. A couple weeks ago I ordered a bunch more videos and I am so excited for them to come in and I am making plans to watch them with the youth of our church. I ordered the 'creation' videos and I am so excited to show them to the kids who are still taught the lies of evolution in our schools. I also have a friend who wants so badly to be saved and I told her about these videos and as soon as they come in I will start watching them with her as well. She is someone I've known for almost 9 years, and was actually part the bad crowd I used to hang out with but I lost contact with her after I went to rehab. She had breast cancer and was given 5 years to live, and is into her 6th year right now. She is in remission, but is still in a very dark place and a couple weeks ago she was ready to die. She begged God to kill her and put her out of her misery. She has no family, no friends, her children were taken away from her. She was completely alone and did not want to live anymore. She begged God to take her. That exact day I was driving home from the store and I was praying and I asked God to show me what to do next, that I wanted to do his works everyday and I needed his guidance to show me what to do next. The next morning I ran into Donna who I had not seen in years, and we had coffee and I told her about how God changed my life and all the amazing things he had done for me this last year and she broke down crying. She told me how the night before she begged God to save her from her misery and to kill her, and she said that instead of killing her, he brought her ME to show her she can have a new life through Him!! I cried with her and prayed over her and told her I would help her every step of the way. We went to the store and I bought her a bible and I talk to her daily now and God gives me the right words to say to inspire her. Yesterday I brought her to church with our family and I can literally see how much God is working in her already! She will be saved and the joy that makes me feel is indescribable! Our God is SO amazing!!!! I apologize for the extremely long story, but I've been wanting to write you for so long now and once I started writing I could not stop. I wanted to thank you so much for your ministry and let u know my husband and I are so grateful for your resources because there really is not any of that kind of stuff around here. We wish so badly that we could donate more money than we have but unfortunately we are struggling financially due to the bad decisions we made years ago and have 500$ a month in credit card payments to make and even at that amount it will take us 3 more years to pay this debt off. We really have no extra money to donate and are so thankful that your material is free. Words cannot express how thankful we are! May God bless you for all your amazing work you do for him. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for making your videos available to us. They have helped us so much to grow closer to God and we are very grateful for it and cannot wait for our next batch of videos to arrive! Thanks again and God bless!" (Heather from Canada)

Video: Various Videos "Happy National Poultry Day, Pastor Crone!!! I could not resist sending this to you today. My family continues to enjoy your sermons and in depth teachings. We thank God that he has used you as a vessel to accomplish His work. May God bless you and your family. **P.S**...Where can we find your most recent video sermons? We watch them via YouTube and GodTube, but we've seen them all." (Mike)

Video: Various Videos "I'd like to come to your Church this summer. I hope you will not go on vacation. I attend your Church every Sunday via the internet...I love it. You are alive when you speak and God is certainly in your Church. Thank you for teaching us and God bless you & your Ministry." (Jenny)

Video: The Final Countdown "Dear Pastor Billy, Hi from Australia, My wife and I have been watching your video series on the final countdown and we were wondering if it is possible to get a DVD copy of the series to date in Region 4 format that can be played here in Australia. We have a number of people whom we would like to show the series to especially our unsaved sisters in Melbourne. Could you please advise how we can get copies in region 4 format. Looking forward to hearing from you. God Bless you and your ministry. Kindest Regards.” (Jeuel & Julie from Australia)

Video: The Final Countdown “Dear Pastor Billy, My name is Peet (Pete, in English) from East London in South Africa. As you can see from the name, I'm Afrikaans. I just returned from a motorbike trip with a good friend of mine. (Very first at the age of 58). During the trip, I received a DVD from my sister's daughter about the Final Countdown. I'm busy watching the series at the moment and have to say that finally I'm hearing the truth that I always believed in. I am quite involed in my church for many years and also serve as an elder for many years. Also have to do sermons if our preacher is not available. I'm very intrigued by the series and the topics that you cover during the Final Countdown. I do have however a question about Noag's Ark, the two of a kind animals and the extinction of the Dinasours during the flood. the question is: Why wasn't there any Dinasours on the Ark then? I'm looking forward to your reply and keep on preaching the truth to a world that desperately needs it. It is just amazing how Christianity was always blamed for everything thats wrong in this world. God Bless. Regards.” (Peet from South Africa).

Video: Did the Bible Really Come from God? “Pastor, thank you for all you do. Just recently we donated to get your 'Did the Bible come from God' series. I just watched number one and it is awesome. Thank you again.” (Tim from Kansas)

Video: Various Videos “Me and my wife thank God for you we have been blessed by your videos, have been watching them for years praise God.” (Jacob from California)

Video: The Final Countdown “Pastor Billy, we spoke briefly as the service was letting out yesterday. I didn't want to hold up the line so I thought I would send an e-mail. We drove over to Sunrise from Pahrump for the service yesterday. My wife and I were very impressed with the service. We were made to feel welcome by everyone there. I became aware of you through the internet over the winter when I found links online to your Final Countdown series. Over the course of several months I watched most of the videos on the getalifemedia website. We were spending the winter at our RV lot in Texas and I was looking forward to getting back to Pahrump so we could attend your church. After watching all the videos it was great to actually attend a service in person. We plan to return this Sunday so we will see you then.” (Reid from Nevada)

Video: Various Videos” Hello, my name is Jenny and I would like to order all the Final Countdown videos and all the dvd's on the flood, a judged creation etc.. Actually, I'd love to have all he has available. My family and I have learned so much from watching Pastor Billy's teachings. My cousin Janet was a believer but was not on fire. She was one of the Christians who didn't think we were living in the last days and she didn't see anything wrong with worldly music etc...I and my sister Marie began praying for her and I prayed that the Lord would open her eyes and her heart. I started posting the "Final Countdown" videos of Pastor Billy Crone's on facebook and my cousin started messaging me and thanking me for posting and for never giving up. She is on fire for Christ and her heart, oh my, she truly has a heart for God now. It is absolutely amazing what the Lord is doing in her life! All her children whom are all grown, have learned alot from watching the teachings of Pastor Billy. Some have turned away from ungodly lifestyles! ALL glory to God! My cousin wants me to quit my job and start doing something to lead as many to Christ with her. She is serious too. Imagine my amazement at seeing how the Lord has answered my prayers, I can't even begin to describe it!!! (Jenny from Ohio)

Video: Various Videos "Thank you, Pastor Billy, for your wonderful videos I've been watching. The first encounter with you was the Creation videos and I was encouraged to see another Christian besides me who believes the earth was probably created in 6 days, not billions of years. Then I watched the Final Countdown and again, encouraged to see a pastor who isn't afraid to talk about end times events. And now I am going through The Revelation Series and yes, I am up to Chapter 2!!!! Yay! I just want to say 'thank you' for all your dedication and hard work in getting the message out. You have inspired me in so many ways. I am going through a very difficult time right now and I know the Lord led me to your videos. If I am ever in your area, I would love to attend your church. If not, I certainly will look you up when I get to Heaven. Your friend." (Rolleen from California)

Video: The Final Countdown "Dear Pastor Billy, I am a pastor in South Africa (63 years old) and on fire for our Lord Jesus Christ. We are retired now but we want to work for our Lord and Savior like never before. Someone borrowed the "Final Countdown" series to us but we would love to have our own to use as a tool for warning and purifying the Bride of Christ. - Is there any way that we can obtain the series? We praise the Lord for a man of God like you. May He bless and use you mightily." (Pastor Peet from South Africa)

Video: Various Videos "Hello Pastor Billy Crone, thank you for all your wonderful videos! They have been a blessing in my life and may God bless you all the more and that His name would be Glorified through your works. Thank you for your time." (Luiza from Florida)

Video: The Final Countdown "I just discovered you through my message board, Rapture Ready. I've been watching The Final Countdown, absolutely fabulous, telling everyone about them. Just watched your testimony, hence my question: My son who is 20yrs old, was a solid Christian from young and through high school, he was always defending his faith. Then he made some friends whose philosophies are very satanic, new age, humanistic and he was introduced to LSD (never did drugs until he graduated). At first he would debate us, (grandpa is a preacher) and seemed to be really struggling. Sad to say that thus far Satan won and he no longer even will discuss issues. He is very demonically influenced and heavy into psychotropic drugs. You were saved out of this but what do you do with someone who knew and embraced the truth and now turns to this. Do you have any books you could recommend that could help me learn how to talk to him?"

(Jennifer)

Video: Radio Interview "Hello, My name is Eric, I've been listening to you on Southwest Radio and i found your web site. I have so many questions and i want to learn more what you were speaking about i want to be able to share with many people around me and near me. This may sound crazy i really agree with everything you spoke about. i want to not just support your ministry but whatever God would have me to do." (Eric from Pennsylvania)

Video: A Marriage Built to Last "Hello, thank you so much for this series. I have listened to it several times as a podcast from Itunes. It really, really blessed my marriage. I would like to order 5 copies of the Volume 1 DVD and book. I know they are free but I would like to at least pay for the shipping. I can't stop talking about how great this series is. I've been trying to find it to send it to my sister who is currently deployed to Afghanistan. Could you assist me with this and let me know what the cost for shipping would be for the DVDs and books? Thank you so much!!" (Myrrah from Missouri)

Video: The Final Countdown "Billy you are a truly amazing person. Thanks so much. We've been doing movie nights with a number of other Christians, showing them the DVDs from the Calgary Israel Bible Prophecy Convention. Thanks again!!" (Neil from Canada)

Video: The Final Countdown "I have watched the whole series on the internet so far and LOVE them!!!! I'm getting the DVDs to share with my family and friends. This is the best put together End Times collection I have ever seen and all the information blows my mind! I will be sending a donation so you can continue your Godly work :)" (Noma Leann from Alabama)

Video: Various Videos "Dear Beloved Servant of the Most High God pastor Billy, Holy greetings through the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! We thank God who led us to your ministry website and as were going through it we have found wonderful blessed and biblical teachings, So it is our humble prayer request that you send us more teachings for spiritual growth, edification and encouragement to our small congregation such as you teach in your ministry. You are also welcome to preach, minister and empower us here in Kenya in God's word for effectual ministry work of the kingdom. May the grace, joy and love of God be with you as we prayerfully seeking and hoping to hear from you as the SPIRIT of God will lead you! Yours in Christ." (Brother Paul from Africa)

Video: The Final Countdown "I heard an interview on 780 am which was very intriguing and got me interested in ordering your DVDs to share with our 5 teenagers and friends and family. I am sending along a donation. Thanks for what you are doing to share God's word." (Sharon from Maryland)

Video: The Final Countdown “Rev. Crone, you do an incredible job educating and instructing people on the most serious issues of our age. My son, who is 12, sat down to watch one of your videos with us yesterday and he loved the Countdown. I think you've got another long-term viewer!” (Jennifer from Florida)

Video: The Final Countdown “I plan on sharing these videos with Pastors and friends on my reservation in Montana and around the US and Canada.” (Terry from Montana)

Video: The Final Countdown “Good Afternoon, I watched all five volumes dvd with Billy Crone. It was very good messages and I can't wait for new Volume 6 to come out in the mail. I ordered with free for dvd called "One World Religion" Ultimate Countdown Volume 6. I am expecting the come in the mail for next two or three weeks. When next Volume 7 is called "One World Government" DVD will come out?? I thank God for Billy Crone done very good messages. I look forward Volume 6 will come in the mail. God bless you, In Christ.” (Carlos from Canada)

Video: The Final Countdown “This series is AWESOME!!!!” (Autumn from Ohio)

Video: Various Videos “I pray that God continues to bless the work of this ministry. It has greatly enriched my walk with God and brought my family closer to God. Thank you for your efforts.” (Andy from Ohio)

Video: Various Videos “Pastor Billy, my wife, Nona, and I are just finishing up on the first couple of your DVD sets of "The Final Countdown: The Ultimate Version." Talk about blown away! WOW!! We are thankful to the Lord that you are blazing a trail where a lot of other pastors won't dare go in fear of their congregations or in fear of being "politically" correct. We knew quite a lot of what you are teaching on, but there is a whole lot you are teaching we have never heard before. Keep it up, Brother. Since we DO NOT watch TV, we had the cable taken out many months ago, we watch Christian teachers that we trust. You are one of those very few teachers that we trust, though, we do know that watching teachers does not take the place of actual personal Bible reading. We do read the Word of God everyday together and use Strong's to help us to understand better. You know, Pastor Billy, we do pray every time before we read God's Word for Him to reveal to us what it is He wants us to know, and every time we come away with a deeper understanding of His Holy, Precious Word. We love the Lord with all of our beings, Pastor Billy. We are so very thankful to Him for teachers like you that will stand for the REAL truth of God's Word and not shy away from it. God is GREAT and we serve a GREAT God! God bless you richly, Pastor.” (Greg from Wyoming)

Video: Get A Life Testimony “Pastor, just thought you would like to know that I'm playing your “Unshackled” testimony at 6:30 pm ET on The George Espenlaub Show. I've had others that were on Unshackled as guests on my show letting listeners know what they've been doing since their testimony was aired.....if you would like to be a guest on my show simply email me. Thank you.” (George from Delaware)

Video: The Final Countdown “I have been listening to your Countdown series. Excellent!!! I didn't know you were in Las Vegas. Every church in America should be preaching this message. I told a friend of mine to get these videos and give them to her Pastor (a large church here in Vegas) because he is asleep and so are his sheep! Jesus is coming so soon!!! Thank you for telling the Truth and Sounding the Alarm!” (Debbie from Nevada)

Video: Various Videos “Dear Pastor Billy Crone, we just want to let you know that we do pray daily for you and your ministry as you are exposing the works of satan head on. We were also in the fulltime ministry and we are so glad that we were faithful in warning and exposing false teachers and I preached about eternity and hell and that made me very unpopular. – There is no way that we were willing to compromise. But we just wanted to let you know that we really are praying daily for you. – May the LORD be with you and may you keep on warning as the coming of our LORD Jesus Christ is at hand. Love in Christ.” (Peet and Wilna from South Africa)

Video: Various Videos “Hi Billy I'm a christian here from Ireland. Love your youtube vids you're a madman.” (Declan from Ireland)

Video: Various Videos “I have ordered the whole set of Countdown to Eternity from Cutting Edge Ministry and am in the process of watching it. It is excellent, thorough and powerful! I just ordered your Revelation set and "Please Don't Go To Hell" DVDs as well. Thank you for your ministry and your passion in serving Christ! This is what we need in these last days -- the encouragement and jolt of what is happening around us -- to get us to warn the unsaved about what is coming and to serve our wonderful Lord. THANK YOU! I would love to receive E-mails or newsletter or anything from your ministry if possible.” (Lynn)

Video: The Final Countdown “Awesome, giving it to may pastor @ hawthorne gospel hawthorne nj.” (Allen from New Jersey)

Video: Various Videos “I love how i can teach my children about the Lord for no cost thank you god bless you!!!! :-) sunrise baptist church is a beautiful church i love the people the pastor is awesome!!!!” (Shawna from Nevada)

Video: Who's That with Jesus? “Thank-you so much for providing this DVD for free. I will be forwarding it to my Mom, hoping it will help in her giving her life to Christ.” (Jenny from Scotland)

Video: The Final Countdown “Mr. Crone.. Pastor..I overheard one of my housemates listening to a sermon or presentation that was very upfront, well-researched and superbly presented.. I had to ask who it was.. I'm glad I did and I thank God that I've discovered another whistleblower such as yourself, sir...I'm also a follower of Jesus and live in Minneapolis.. I'm 36 and have been following the Lord since college in the late '90s... I've been in many different kinds of Christian circles over the years and have been a part of two churches at different times... it's sad to see so many in my generation fall for the "worldly Christian" lifestyle - especially the gay agenda which is huge in very liberal Minnesota... so, there's a lot to fight against...I just wanted to drop you a message and tell you to keep your gaze on Jesus Christ.. the days are evil but it is good to know i have certain pastors whose messages I can tune into and know that I'm guaranteed the gospel... I'm a leader of sorts.. I am gifted in music.. I've written a handful of worship songs and I intend to record an album very soon... I just need to continually be motivated because a lot of the time, I feel very alone in the path God has put me on in this life... I've been desperate for other believers who want to hold onto Jesus with everything they've got and not let go instead of associating with "halfway there" Christians... we are in a very late hour and what we do with our time is vital...Blessings.” (Craig from Minnesota)

Video: The Final Countdown “Thank you for these teachings of truth!!” (Jaimie from Ohio)

Video: The Final Countdown “Love these video's....gonna use them to pass along!” (Angela from Ohio)

Video: The Final Countdown “Pastor Crone I love your style of mixing media and Scripture. I often tell people to ask themselves "What would it look like today?" what I mean by this is exactly what you show with the media clips as visual aids. Continue to fight the good fight and may the Lord bless you richly in the heavenly realms. A fellow soldier in Christ Jesus.” (Stephen from Alabama)

Video: Various Videos “Praise God! :). thank you for all of the stuff you produce, I am still looking for a place out here in Phoenix, until then you are my church brother.(still wanting to get to vegas for a live sermon and shake your hand, and kenny too, LOL. I give out your website as much as I can to people. thanks Pastor Billy.” (Dan from Arizona)

Video: The Final Countdown “Thank you for the Final Countdown series, they are amazing! I cannot listen to them fast enough.” (Prudence)

Video: Various Videos “Hey Billy, how are you...been listening to you on k x x t here in phoenix. you're awesome brother. I've been a Christian for 45 yrs now. been really doing some intense study for the last two years. I guess you could say I'm getting into the meat of the word. its blowing me away, as to what I'm learning concerning endtimes...I've been listening to you concerning Israel and whats going on over there, concerning rebuilding the temple. fantastic . we're getting close. the rapture is eminent...smiles..... having a problem of convincing family and friends.....they think I'm being too radical.....what do you suggest.....even Christian friends, WHO DO NOT STUDY, tell me , just keep it to yourself...enjoy your life, have fun, which I do think is important. just want them to realize that we are indeed living in the last days. Jesus Christ is about to return....I hope to hear from you...take care.....GOD BLESS.” Loraine from Arizona)

Video: The Final Countdown “I am in the US Army. I thank you for your ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you for your work of our Lord.” (Glen from South Korea)

Video: Various Videos “Hello, Pastor Crone, my name is Lacey and I am writing on behalf of my son. I would first like to tell you that Brent gave his life to Jesus while watching your Final Countdown videos. He always has them on and listens to them 24/7. This is literal! I also enjoy them immensely and have started posting them on FB for others to see. Your teaching on end-time events is probably the most concise that I have seen, thus far. Love in Christ.” (Lacey)

Video: The Final Countdown “Pastor Billy, you came to Calgary in November for the Bible prophecy conference. My wife and I could not make it, however we got DVD copies of the conference, and have since then ordered some material on your website. A couple of things for you to note: 1) We appreciate the fact that you do not copyright your material. You are obviously working for God, and looking to the treasure you have in heaven. You are 1 in 1,000, as most would seek to profit off this kind of work. KEEP UP THE GREAT JOB. 2) My wife and I are holding movie nights at our house for our friends, family, and my in-laws friends. We've just finished the Calgary Israel Bible Prophecy convention, and will start up again in the next couple of showing your Final Countdown work. This has been a great hit, and also has helped people we know to open their eyes to the many signs around us. Thanks for your work. 3) I've been holding a Bible study in a youth prison in Calgary, called the Calgary Young Offender Centre (every Friday night). The thing that has fired up these boys are the signs of the times around us. I've been preaching that the Bible has foretold of many of the things we are seeing today, as well as events that are going to happen (i.e. Damascus bye-bye), etc. Therefore, if the Bible is dead accurate on what we're seeing today, then it must also be true in respect of the Messiah. I've been showing parts of your work, and the level of detail that you go into, as well as the actual evidence you manage to dredge up has given so much to these kids. Recently one boy (Jesse) just gave his life to Christ, and I can tell he is serious about learning. Again, thanks for the material, because it has also refreshed our faith and walk. 4) Matthew 24 talks about the good and faithful servant, always expecting the master to come back soon. I realize now why this is so important. If we don't expect the master back at any time, our love for Him will grow cold. Even if He were 100 years away or more, we should live like He is coming tomorrow, so we will not have the regrets of falling away from Him. Thanks again, and God bless your work!” (Neil from Canada)

Video: Discipleship 101 - Another thank you for the Disciple 101 series. Started watching today, and already learning good things. Reminds me of what St. Augustine wrote.....basically to see God, Jesus, and/or the Holy Spirit is done much in the say way someone looks at the wind. Not so much by itself, but by the things it effects. Like a tree top that is swaying back and forth. Granted there are some who stand at the bottom of a tree shaking it, claiming it is God, Jesus, or the Holy Spirit, when in truth it is just them shaking the tree. But, with you I see the tree top move back and forth with no one near the tree or shaking the ground for that matter. And though some do like to claim the tree moved by itself, out of ignorance, thanks to you I'm coming better at recognizing when it is God, Jesus, or the Holy Spirit moving a tree top (soul) and when it is someone just shaking it or the ground nearby. Thanks Pastor Crone.” (Paul)
